The Resurrection of the Lord

April 17, 2022

The Resurrection of Jesus enlightens our lives and reaffirms our hope of future life. "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" Every earthly joy, every earthly pain takes on new meaning in the Resurrection. "If you have risen with Christ, seek the things that are above." Our lives are transformed: our actions reflect new values.

With joy we welcome into our community of faith those who were baptized at the Easter Vigil: Phoebe Chan, Dario Ng, Luke Ng, and Chi Zhang.

We are especially grateful to God for the easing of the threat of COVID-19, and for being able to participate fully in the Sacred Liturgies. We thank everyone who helped make our celebration of Easter so beautiful: the choir, the organists, the lectors and ushers, the altar servers, those who cleaned the church, prepared the linens and sacred vessels, and those who arranged the flowers. We keep in our prayers the sick and those from whom we are separated by distance or death, and commend them to the Risen Lord.
